THE MASTER OF STREET PAINTING

Edgar Mueller is a German street painter who was born in 1968. In fact he is one of the most famous 3-D street painters in the world. He became famous because of his YouTube videos. His career started at the age of 16 when he decided to enter the international competition of street painters organized by his high school. He made a copy of the famous "Jesus at Emmaus" by Caravaggio. At the age of 25, he travelled all over Europe. He made a living with his art, giving workshops at schools and organizing various street painting festivals. In 1998, he received the title of master street painter at the Sarasota Chalk Festival in Florida. And he has been the master of street painting since this festival in 1998.
