Script de la vidéo

Laura: Welcome to Spectrecom's Waterloo Film Studios. I'm Laura and I look after the studio bookings.

We have four studios here and we are really centrally located, just down the road from Waterloo Station. Now, all our studios come fully serviced with green rooms, make-up, wardrobe; everything you need to make your shoot run smoothly.

Now, what's really interesting about Spectrecom is as well owning our own film studios, we are also a production company, so we really can handle everything for you. We can organise your production, we can provide you with crew and we can even take care of your editing for you.

So why don't come inside and I'll introduce you to Pearl. So here we are in reception, and this is Pearl, our hospitality manager.

Right, now through here is studio 1.

Studio 1 is our largest studio and as you can see with these shutter doors, it makes it ideal for loading and unloading. And of course if you are doing a car shoot, we have the drive-in access. At 2,100 square foot, it makes it suitable for any productions, from photography shoots to much larger set films.

In here we've shot for big brands like BMW and the Times, as well as hosting production for BBC's Strictly Come Dancing and Stephen Fry's Planet Word.

Stephen Fry: I have to tell you that Waterloo Studios is my favourite anywhere.

Laura: Studio 1, like all our studios, comes complete with its own green room, and if your production also requires a gallery, we can cater for that too.

Here we are in Studio 2. Again you've got the shutter access, so it's good for car shoots. It is the larger of our two green screen studios, and we have fantastic sound quality in here. We've shot our own productions for Guinness... and we've even hosted 007's original Aston Martin.

Just down the corridor here we have Studio 3, which is our third largest studio and at 750 square foot it makes it ideal for news desks and interview star setups.

And Action!

Through here is Studio 4. This is our smallest studio and at 200 square foot it's perfect for hosting ads and promos, and Web TV presentations.

We are a full-blown film and video production company. And in house here, we have a team of over 25 creative professionals, including directors, producers, writers and editors.

And this here is Florence, she's our head of production and probably the most organised person in the world.

And just down here is our edit floor, where we can deliver a total post-production service: editing, specialist motion graphics and animation.

In fact everything is here, everything you need, all under one roof!
