1. Soulignez dans les séries de mots en italique ce que dit Lady Gaga, dans son discours.

I had this (reality – dream – realm) when I was really (young – born – old) that I could be whoever I wanted to (meet – be – greet). And no matter what I visioned for myself that I would do it, no matter who didn't (think – thank – believe) in me.

Thank you so much and thank you. I need to say (thank you – good bye – hi) tonight to Whitney Houston.

I wanted to thank Whitney because when I (quote – sang – wrote) "Born This Way", I imagined she was (rehearsing it – singing it – reading it) because I wasn't secure enough in myself to imagine I was (a superhero – a super performer – a superstar). So Whitney I (imagined – thought – believed) you were singing "Born This Way" when I wrote it. Thank you.

2. Répondez aux questions en français.

- a. Depuis quand Lady Gaga rêve-t-elle de ces moments de gloire ?

Depuis qu'elle est toute jeune, même si personne ne croyait en elle.

- b. Pourquoi fait-elle référence à Whitney Houston ?

Parce que Whitney Houston est décédée et qu'elle était une très grande chanteuse ; qu'elle a pensé à Whitney lorsqu'elle a écrit et composé « Born This Way ».

SCRIPT DE LA VIDÉO

Animateurs: And the Grammy goes to.... "The Fame Monster", Lady Gaga!

Lady Gaga: Oh! S*! Thank you so much, from the bottom of my heart, to all my fans, all the monsters watching.

Thank you to my father, my mother, my beautiful sister Natali, I love you.

To Vincent and Troy, for standing by me, for being the best manager and the most amazing A&R partner a girl could ever have.

Thank you Jimmy Iovine. Thank you so much to Doug Morris and Lucian. Thank you to the whole team at Interscope*.

I had this dream when I was really young that I could be whoever I wanted to be and no matter what I visioned for myself that I would do it, no matter who didn't believe in me.

Thank you so much and thank you. I need to say thank you tonight to Whitney Houston.
